Prepositions

A preposition is a word that shows a relationship between a noun (or pronoun) and some other word in the sentence.

Prepositions can show where people or things are located.

The girl walked through the door.

The preposition through describes where the girl walked in relation to the door.

My book is under the papers.

The preposition under describes where the book is in relation to the papers.

Prepositions can also show time relationships.

I went to the store before dinner.

The preposition before describes the time relationship between going to the store and making dinner.

We told ghost stories during the night.

The preposition during describes the time relationship between telling ghost stories and the night.

Circle the preposition in each sentence.
